Welcome

As the Leicester property market keeps on growing day by day, there is more and more of a gap to fill these services. This is where Leicester on the Web comes in. It allows both private sellers and estate agents the opportunity to add properties to a national database which anyone can search.

We offer properties nationwide and our listings provide instant access to the sellers of the properties.

Our aim, is to make Leicester on the Web, the most comprehensive directory of Commercial & Residential Properties in the Leicester area.
